

Year 2 Enquiry Homework Board

Our question this term is 'Are accidents ever faultless?'

Look at all the different options for creative homework below. How many can you complete by the end of this term? Bring your sheet and some examples of your homework to school on Wednesday 18th December.

Research

Who was Samuel Pepys? Can you find out some information about who he was and what he did?

Make a fire safety poster

Make a fire safety poster for modern life. How can people stay safe in their homes? What should you do if you see a fire?

Create a piece of artwork representing the Great Fire of London.

Why not create the silhouette of London burning? You could use paint or draw it.

Write a letter to Thomas Farriner.

Remember learning that Thomas Farriner owned the bakery that started the Great Fire of London? Why don't you write him a letter giving your thoughts on our enquiry question.

Let's get baking!

Do you remember looking at instructions for bread in class? Can you find a recipe and make it?

A book review

Remember when we read 'The True Story of the Three Little Pigs'? Why don't you write a book review about the story? What were your favourite parts?
