

Year 1 - A hundred years of change - was it all good?

Sticky Knowledge

- A. The months of the year are January, February, March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October, November and December.
- B. My birthday happens once every year on the same day..
- C. The past has happened previously .
- D. A timeline is ordered chronologically..
- E. Changes in transport have made it faster to get to places.
- F. Artefacts can give us information about the past.
- G. Memories can be shared, but most people remember things differently..
- H. Facts are things that are known or proved to be true.
- I. Neil Armstrong was the first human to walk on the moon during the Apollo 11 mission on 20th July 1969.
- J. Neil and Buzz were the first humans to step foot on the moon, but they were also the first humans to view Earth from the moon's surface.

Chronology is the arrangement of dates in the order of which they happened
 Significant is something important and that is remembered by many

Neil Armstrong

Space Race between Russia and

Key vocabulary

Past		Something that has happened.	Key revision vocabulary: Before I was born..
Present		What is happening now.
Future		Something that has not happened yet.	When I was younger...
Chronological		In the order that they occurred.	When I am older...
Transport		The vehicles that people use to move around.
Artefact		Artefacts are objects made by human beings.

Artefacts