

FI – What makes me special? How do we celebrate?

Sticky Knowledge

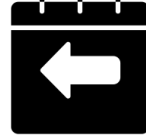

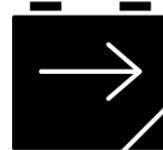

- A. Family units can look different to one another.
- B. Familiar people are people that we know
- C. Each year my birthday marks the anniversary of me getting older
- D. People age over time and this is celebrated on their birthday
- E. Yesterday happened before today.
- F. Today is the present.
- G. Tomorrow is the future.
- H. Things that happen to me can influence my future/ when I grow up.
- I. Stories can be written down and read.
- J. An action refers to something that someone does, such as a decision they make, choice they take, or a behavior they exhibit.
- K. Same means identical and not different

This is my family....

Events we celebrate...

Key vocabulary

Family		Family units can look different from one and another.
Birthday		A birthday is celebrated every year on the date of your birth
Yesterday		Yesterday was in the past.
Today		Today is in the present.
Tomorrow		Tomorrow is the future.
Event		An event is a planned special occasion that happens.